Grady-White Freedom 215

The Freedom 215 is the latest addition to Grady-White's popular dual-console series. This beamy 21-footer offers a dry, sports-car-like ride with the wave-cutting ability of larger models, as well as roominess and a smart layout with many innovative features, like built-in port and starboard swim-platform extensions, and swing-away aft-seat backrests that pivot out of the way to access the swim and dockside boarding platforms. There's also a lockable starboard console compartment with tackle storage trays, four vertical rod holders and horizontal rod racks, plus a recessed cockpit shower, a 64-quart cooler that can be plumbed as a 16-gallon livewell, and more.
