With over 60 years of design innovations, Grady-White has surpassed standard expectations of center consoles by adding extra features of luxury comfort. While its performance and practicality is unmistakably evident, this vessel includes a lockable console with stand-up cherry-accented head compartment, stainless steel sink with pull-out faucet, Corian counter, a lighted mirror and ample storage. Available at gradywhite.com

Expert's Verdict: "With design ingenuity, spaciousness, a well-appointed layout coming together with the functionality and handling that we've come to expect from the brand (Grady-White), it appears that the Canyon 326 is definitely a great boat for moving up from a smaller center console or even down from a larger fishing machine." – Captain Steve Larivee, Test Captain, BoatTEST.com
