

Dock Lines

Your connection to The Grady Life

Grady Satisfied The Fishermen and Day Cruisers In This Boat Loving Family

"Life is short – spend it with family!" exclaims Chris Shields. Where better to do that than on a Grady-White boat? Chris' father, Patrick, bought the family's first Grady-White boat in 1989. Both avid sportsmen, Chris said that Fisherman 204 kept him busy and out of trouble during his teenage years. Today, with his wife, four-year old daughter, and parents, his love of boating continues on his family's fourth Grady, a Canyon 306.

READ MORE

Conservation

Grady-White Boats is always at the table, consistently and confidently working to protect our waters and fisheries. This spring, two of our team members met in Washington, DC, for the American Sportfishing Association's annual spring government affairs meeting.

READ MORE

Customer Tips

The Importance of Anodes. In this article you'll learn about why your engine has them, where to find them on your engine, and how to replace them when necessary. These small parts do a big job in protecting your outboard engine.

READ MORE

Dock Like a Pro

Eric Sorensen shows you how he docks this Grady-White boat like a pro. These tips will not only make docking easier on you and your crew, but also give you peace of mind knowing your boat is secure when you leave the dock.

WATCH NOW

Outfit Your Crew with New Grady Gear This Season!

From performance wear for youth and adults to dog collars for your Grady Buddy, everyone will be riding in style and comfort with new Grady gear. We've got everything you need for exceptional days on your Grady-White boat!

SEE MORE

Serve It Fresh!

Guests will enjoy this delicious recipe, compliments of Marlin Magazine, made with the bounty of the day's catch. The combination of lump crab meat, shrimp, fresh vegetables, herbs, and juices makes a refreshing appetizer.

GET THE RECIPE HERE

GRADY-WHITE BOATS

Exceptional attention to detail.

